

extract or extracts, a copy or copies of the same, under the seal of his office, at the cost and expense of the person or persons so applying for the same as aforesaid, and the said person or persons may have the same extract or extracts recorded amongst the land records of the said county, and the clerk of the Circuit Court for the said county, upon application, is hereby required to have the extract or extracts, aforesaid, recorded in the record books aforesaid, and that the same be alphabeted in the same manner that the deeds, and other instruments of writing, are alphabeted; which said enrollment shall be made at the expense and costs of the party or parties requiring the same.

28 The deed or deeds, or other instruments of writing, and the extracts aforesaid, when so as aforesaid enrolled, shall have the same effect and operation in law, to all intents and purposes, as if the records, aforesaid, in which the said deed or deeds, or other instruments of writing were heretofore enrolled, had never been destroyed.

29. Any person or persons having possession of any bill of sale, mortgage, or other instrument of writing, relating to personal property, that appears to have been heretofore recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for the said county, and the record thereof has been destroyed, may have the same enrolled again, and the clerk of the said court is hereby required to record the same, together with the endorsement thereon of the former enrollment in the record book aforesaid, at the cost and expense of the party or parties requiring the same; and the same, when so recorded, shall have the same effect and operation in law, to all intents and purposes, as if the records aforesaid, in which the said papers were heretofore recorded, had never been destroyed.
